

Estella - 24 inches and 105 lbs - is a Cane Corso from top Italian and Serbian lines. A foundation bitch in our program, she is a very high drive dog that excels at bite work. In our opinion it is the Cane Corso, of all the modern Mastiffs, that most closely resembles the medieval Mastiff phenotype, which is why one of our lines is based on this breed.

Scroll down for images

Summary

0

AT RISK

0

CARRIER

TAP ABOVE OR SCROLL DOWN TO SEE MORE

Genetic Health Conditions

LEARN MORE

A genetic health condition indicates a genetic mutation that increases the risk that an animal develops a specific disease.

Not At Risk

Good news! Estella did not test positive for any of the genetic diseases that Embark screens for.

8/15/2019

Embark Dog DNA Test - Health Results

Not A Carrier

Good news! Estella is not a carrier for any of the genetic diseases that Embark tests for.

Common Conditions

(/members/results/healthfull)

Good news! Estella tested clear for 1 genetic conditions that are common in her breed.

CONDITION LIST

Canine Multifocal Retinopathy cmr1 (BEST1 Exon 2)

EYES

This is a non-progressive retinal disease that, in rare cases, can lead to vision loss. CMR is typically only identified when a vet examines the eye which, in dogs with C...
(/members/results/condition/040500)

Other Conditions: Clear of 171

(/members/results/healthfull)

Estella is clear of 171 other genetic diseases that Embark tests for. Click here to see them all!

Print or Download Results

